GAMBLING IS A METHOD OF GETTING NOTHING FOR SOMETHING.

A woman, in the bar of a cruise ship, asks the bartender for a Scotch and two drops of water. As the bartender gives her the drink, she says,

"It's my 80th birthday today, and I'm on this cruise to celebrate." The bartender says, "Well, since it's your birthday, I'll buy you a drink."

"Thank you," the woman says, "I'll have another Scotch and two drops of water."

"Ma'am," the bartender says, "I don't mean to be rude, but why the Scotch and only two drops of water?"

The woman replies, "Sonny, when you get to be my age, you can hold your liquor, but you sure can't hold your water."

The bartender pours the drinks, and the man drinks them as fast as he can.
"Wow," says the bartender, "that's the fastest I've ever seen anyone drink."
"Well," the man said, "you'd drink that fast

The bartender asked, "What do you have?"
The man replied, "Fifty cents."

STRANGE But True...

New Hampshire- Accident investigators say the car was airborne for 150 feet before crashing through the roof of the Donovan's house at three o'clock in the morning. Driven by a 20-year-old woman, who was later arrested for drunk driving, the car came through the ceiling and dropped right over the Donovan's bed. "The thing was right in front of my face, ... I could feel the heat from the exhaust system coming through the sheets," said Mr. Donovan. Still, that wasn't enough to wake his wife. He had to shake her awake after the crash.

A little boy called to the new neighbor, "If you are annoyed by the piano playing next door, be sure and complain to my mother."

People once thought the world was flat. Then they thought it was round. Now we know it's crooked.
